Instructors

Michael Holter, TWSA

Michael Holter TWSA, NWS, member of the Salma-gundi Club, is an award-winning artist and sought-after-teacher with multiple Signature affiliations. Painting most of his life, Michael’s work experience, from art instructor to businessman, provided him a wide range of creative challenges. Michael has been published in several magazines, issues of Splash and instructional DVD’s by Creative Catalyst. In addition, he has been on the faculty of Watercolor Live and Plein Air Live and has developed and recorded dozens of online instructional workshops under his High-Noon Workshops brand.

Laurie Goldstein-Warren, TWSA

Laurie has been experimenting with new techniques in watercolor/acrylic for over 22 years. Her work has been exhibited internationally and she enjoys traveling and teaching workshops across the United States. Laurie has been featured regularly in Watercolor/ Artist Magazines and the Splash series focusing on her well known cityscapes, portraits and still life paintings. In the Summer of 2021, she curated the newly released book, “Her Voice”, featuring women watercolor master artists. This year (2022), Laurie has been invited to demo and exhibit in England at the International Watercolour Masters Exhibition.
